

Invitation
Online screening and release of the Award-winning film

THE HARDEST BRIDGE

DIRECTOR & PRODUCER, IMAD KARAM

A NEW DOCUMENTARY FILM WHICH RESONATES
WITH HOPE THAT WHEN WE STOP DEHUMANISING
'THE OTHER' IN OUR CONFLICTS,
PEACE CAN PREVAIL.

Can the wounds of war heal? Can enemies reconcile?

In this film we hear the insights of two remarkable individuals: Jo Berry and Pat Magee. As a fighter with the IRA, Pat Magee planted a bomb in the Grand Hotel, Brighton which killed, among others, Sir Anthony Berry MP, father of Jo Berry. Magee was later imprisoned but released under the Good Friday Agreement. Jo went to meet him. Ever since they have been on a transformative journey which is relevant to conflicts in our world today.
